Intercultural Conflict Management

The specialization program in Intercultural Conflict Management is a unique opportunity designed to enhance conflict understanding and peace processes from an intercultural perspective. Ethnic and cultural aspects are relevant to understand the structural roots of conflicts therefore this specialization is aimed to offer this necessary and in-depth knowledge.

Built on the combined expertise of the Universitat Oberta de Catalunya (UOC) and the United Nations Institute for Training and Research (UNITAR), the specialization program in Intercultural Conflict Management aims to equip participants with a broad analytical skill set, first-hand knowledge and unique expertise from the field of conflict with an intercultural approach.

The specialization program in Intercultural Conflict Management reviews academic and best practices skills coming from the studies on intercultural management in conflict situations. Students will gain access to a broad community of world wide spread alumni. Becoming part of this community will be a valuable lifetime asset.

This program belongs to the Master of Conflict, Peace and Security carried out in collaborations with UNITAR.
